SAVAGE for Governor and Marks for Senator in Bailey's stead, is the ticket of the repudiationists. Wilson will be satisfied with another thousand dollar retainer from the State, we presume.

Gov. LUKE P. BLACKBURN will canvass Ohio for Ewing. His throat isn't so "sore" as it was when Hon. Walter Evans challenged him for a joint discussion during the progress of the canvass in his own State.

THE Republicans of Tennessee must make the canvass next summer on a plain, straightforward, unambiguous, ringing platform, recognizing the validity of the State debt, and pledging the State to its payment upon terms satisfactory to its creditors, and must support no candidate whose record is not clear on that question.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says of a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting held at the Walds Street Market in that place Saturday evening: "Judge Hook in an address of over an hour in length, presented the most conclusive reasons why the Republican State ticket in Ohio should be elected this fall, and said, that in his opinion, it would be."

It comes with exceedingly bad grace from a Democrat to talk about Charles Foster, of Ohio, being a civilian during the war, when, three years ago, they voted for a man for President, who, living at the North, advanced the right of a State to secede, and then when the war came up made a figure by swindling others, and then avoiding the payment of his legal income-tax by committing perjury.

A DEMOCRATIC exchange asks:
"What had the Republicans North to do with the Chisolm trial?" meaning that it was no business of the Northern Republicans how it resulted. It was the business of every law-abiding man in the nation. It was a simple question as to whether a murderer should be punished, for a cowardly villainous crime, and every man, woman and child in the land is interested in the enforcement of the law.

THE New York World is in high glee over an imaginary trouble in the Republican camps, brought about by an alleged alliance between Senator Blaine and Secretary Sherman to prevent the nomination of Grant. It makes very little difference to the Democracy which of these gentlemen, or whether some one else is the standard bearer of the Republican party next year—whichever he may be, he is sure to be elected, and whoever is elected will not give comfort to the desperate Democracy.

The Fever Take Another Jump for the Worse in Memphis.

Ten New Cases and Six Deaths the Record to Noon Yesterday.

The Howards Provided with Funds to Last Fifteen Days.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 30.—9 a. m.—
There were three new cases reported this morning. Sister Agnes and two colored. Undertakers report three interments, Mary Bacon, Mrs.
Martha Milburn and L. Winston, last named colored. Mrs. Milburn is mother of Thos. H. Milburn, President of the German National Bank. The weather is warm and sultry.

Mrs. Bacon, wife of David Bacon, died last night.
The Secretary of the Howards, at a meeting held last night, stated that the daily expenses were about six hundred dollars, and that the funds on hand would last fifteen days, unless the fever continues to spread into the adjacent country.

NOON.—Seven more cases have been reported—Susie Lewis, James Rice, Adolph Rosedale, Mrs. Mary Bacon (who died last night), Annie and Leo Werne and Sallie White—the last named colored. Mrs. Ruth James and Miss Kate James, residing beyond the city limits are also reported down with the fever.

Three additional deaths have occurred, Isaac Lecroix, Charley Dargis and John Pettis. Mrs. Prestidge continues to improve. Sister Agnes, whose name was reported among the new cases to-day, came from St. Mary's Catholic Hospital, St. Louis, with Sister Joseph, about three weeks ago. She has been attending the sick at the City Hospital, where she now lies ill.

Thos. H. Milburn, President of the German National Bank, has been ill with the fever for the past week. He has had no physician, being attended by Gen. W. J.
Smith, acting President of the Howard Association, who reports him convalescing. His name has never been reported. Effie Dalzell, daughter of Rev. W. T. Dalzell, is progressing favorably.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 28.—Thirteen new cases, three white and ten colored, were reported to the Board of Health to-day. Among the number are John A. Stinette, George Pless and Mollie McDonald.

Six interments were reported by the undertakers—Alfred B. Watkins, George Jerome, Richard S.
Lawrence, Thomas A. Dobbs, Jerome Van Orstrand and Dolly Rogers, the last named being colored.

In addition to the new cases reported to the Board of Health, the following were supplied with nurses to-day by the Howards: Mrs.
Thos. Cubbins, Mrs. Lizzie Rynders, Isaac Lacroix, Lizzie Cash and Adolph Rosedale.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Produce Exchange to-day adopted resolutions postponing until the first of January the going into effect of the central system, so far as regards the grain trade. The central system goes into effect to-morrow in the provision and other trades.

The Board of Aldermen to-day rejected Mayor Cooper's nominations as follows: Sheridan Shook and Charles R. Casta, for Public Commissioner; J. Wallace Bryant, John Harris Brady, Nicholas Bur-tenschlag, Jacob A. Gross, D. D. T.
Marshall and Allen McDonald for Excise Commissioners.

CHITTENANGO, Sept. 30.—Mrs.
Laura Barnard, a widow lady, aged 60 years, died suddenly on Sunday in intense agony. Her daughter, the wife of a man of bad repute named Richard Shrouder, is suspected of the crime. She has been arrested and is now locked up awaiting the result of the coronor's investigation. It is reported that the daughter purchased arsenic at a village drug store and poisoned her mother.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 30.—It is officially announced that the Han-lan-Courtney race will positively occur October 16th on Chautauqua Lake.

THE Water Works Commissioners.
Mr. Samuel McKinney has been elected President of the Board of Water Works Commissioners, which position was made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Jno. S. Van Gilder. The other members of the Board are: Col.
Adrian Terry, Secretary, and Messrs.
Peter Staub, Peter Kern and H. B.
Branner.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 30.—A man named Moore, of Crab Orchard, shot Col. M. Lewis Clark, Jr., President of the Louisville Jockey Club, at the Galt House, last night.
It is not thought the wound will prove fatal. Moore had two horses entered for the race at the club grounds, but being indebted to the club for forfeits, the President refused to allow them to start. Moore and Clark met in the evening and after some words had passed between them, Clark went to his office and was in a few minutes followed by Moore, who began shooting at him.
One ball struck Clark in the right breast, and glanced around under his shoulder.

In the third race, of one and a half miles, Ben. Hill won, A. D.
Glenn second, Buckner third; time, 2:38. The fourth race, of one and one-eighth miles, Victim won, Good-night second, Short Line third; time 1:56.

VIRGINIA.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 30.—The Alexandria and Fairfax Agricultural Association Fair opened today and was a great success, the attendance numbering 4,000. The display in all the departments was excellent, especially the horses and cattle. There were Arabian stallions belonging to Gen. Grant on exhibition. There was a grand fireman's parade and tournament during the afternoon.

Eight thousand dollars was awarded to-day against Reverdy J. Doings-field, in the Circuit Court, for being accessory to the shooting and maiming of D. C. Thompson, a year ago, when Thompson was shot by Geo. W. Harrison.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The reunion of the Army of Tennessee has been postponed to the 13th of November, owing to General Grant's inability to be present until then.

KEOSAU, Sept. 29. An incendinary fire destroyed the St. Louis & Northwestern R. R. round house today. Four locomotives were damaged. Loss $30,000.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 30.—The President's message was delivered in Congress on the 16th. It was long, and devoted principally to international affairs, but says the foreign relations of Mexico are of the most amicable character, and that no new embarrasments have arisen to render difficult the complete agreement with the United States.
It refers to the general prosperity of the country and declares against re-election.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Sicily and southern Italy were visited by a great storm Sunday which carried away the railroad bridge between Ciro and Cincoli, hurling the express train into the torrent. The engineer was killed and all the passengers were more or less injured.
Elliott has challenged Boyd to row for two hundred pounds a side.
The offer was accepted.

Eastern Siberia is menaced with famine. Grain is dearer than ever before, and the poor are suffering severely.

VIENNA, Sept. 30.—It is said the Emperor of Russia is suffering from mental fatigue, and is constantly growing worse.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30.—John Kennedy, deputy sheriff and keeper of the parish prison, was killed last night by a sailor named Jim Barringer, near Magnolia Bridge. He knocked Kennedy down and stamped on his head, fracturing his skull.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 30.—The various Trades Unions succeeded in getting about two thousand men on a strike yesterday.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 30.—J. B.
Warren, a merchant from North Carolina, purchasing goods in this city, mysteriously disappeared yesterday morning. It is stated that he had $1,500 on his person.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 30.— The wife of Rev. J. B. R. Walker sues him for divorce. Walker has been a prominent divine. Eminent counsel are engaged, and the matter attracts much attention. Mrs.
Walker's grounds are abuse and infidelity.

An exchange gives directions for "a good way to build a chimney," but everybody knows that the best way to build it is on a house. A chimney built in the lower part of the garden, 100 feet from the house, would prove a ridiculous failure.—Norristown Herald.

The Gilberts.

We will venture the assertion that everybody present at the Opera House last night were surprised—agreeably so. It is true the papers have spoken favorably of The Gilberts everywhere, they have played, and a good entertainment was confidently expected, but no one was prepared for their superior excellence. We are confident that the audience will bear us out in the statement that a better comedy troupe has not appeared on our stage. The parts were all played well, there being none of that disparity in abilities that so detracts from the pleasant effect produced by the staff.

The evening was opened by "My Uncle's Will," a light, pleasant, sparkling little comedy. In this there are only three characters, and they were excellently rendered by Miss Belle Gilbert, and Messrs James M. Gilbert and D. R. Young.

The great play, however, was "Mosquitoes." This is the broadest, most comical, laughable, ridiculous farce to be found anywhere. It is full of hits, puns, and sharp sayings, and one can never tell when he is to be surprised by something new, especially laugh-provoking. The life of it was the pranks of Katie Gilbert. She is a piquant, pleasing, roguish little actress, with just a soupçon of naughtiness to make her doubly bewitching.
We would like to mention the merits of all of the performers, but space will not permit. We will sum up by saying that they were all first-class.

To-night "Lady Audley's Secret" will be brought out. This is a dramatization of Miss Braddon's famous novel which has delighted so many thousands. The cast is as follows: Lady Audley, Miss Katie Gilbert; Phoebe Audley, Miss Jennie Gilbert; Phoebe Audley, Miss Belle Gilbert; Robert Audley, Jas. M. Gilbert; George Tal-boys, David R. Young; Luke Marks, Harry B. Bell; Sir Michael Audley, D. R. Mortimer.

The entertainment will conclude with the charming comedy of "Dodging For a Wife."

It will be remembered this is a Tennessee troupe, and this joined to their superior worth will insure them a fine house.

A Disappointed Celestial.

Virginia City (Nev.) Enterprise.

Yesterday morning a Chinaman came into Youngworth's chop house with a basket containing about half a bushel of yellow-bellied, wartybacked toads, which he offered to dispose of at six bits a dozen, calling them "flogs." When told that they were not frogs but toads, and unfit to eat, the Chinaman looked unhappy. He evidently thought he was bringing to town a luxury that would be snapped up almost instantaneously at a big price. He said: "Toad, toad—you call him toad?" "Certainly," said Young-worth, "regular toad—no good."
"What for him no good? Me think you foolme. Him walkee all same flog, what for him toad?" and John looked as if he suspected the toad talk was a job to get his "flogs" for nothing. John was assured that his game was "no good," and he finally turned sadly away, yet he held on to his basket of toads and carried them off in the direction of Chinatown. It appears that the poor devil had lugged his load of toads—all alive and kicking, too—all the way from the town of Suro, having found them about some pond down that way.

Notes from Graytown.

GRAYTOWN, KNOX CO., Sept. 27.
MR. EDITOR: A few notes from this part of the county, if you please, as we are seldom heard from through the press, owing, I suppose, to the modesty that blushes at the mention of its own worth. Ours is a section favored with schools and Churches, where honest men live to enjoy the fruits of their own industry. We have good farms, out of debt, plenty to eat, enough to wear, and this is all of the world we want—perhaps, I should have said it is all we can use to advantage.

A revival meeting seems to be passing now; a meeting at Rocky Dale, conducted by Rev. J. B. Little, of the M. E.
Church, pastor of this Circuit, resulted in thirty-one professions; it was a happy season, and we trust much good was accomplished. Another meeting of increasing interest is now in progress at Graytown, conducted by Rev. Mr. Skaggs, of the Baptist Church. We also had the pleasure of attending the last quarterly meeting of the circuit for the present year, held at Clapp's Chapel last Saturday and Sabbath. The Presiding Elder, Rev. J. A. Ruble, was present and preached two most excellent sermons. Mr. Marshall, of Knoxville, preached on Saturday night, and Dr. Marshall on Sunday evening.

Clapp's Chapel, you remember, has been twice burned within the past year. A third and handsome building is now being erected, and is being used as a place of worship. The people are zealous, and appear determined to have a church. After the Presiding Elder's claim was fully met on Sabbath morning, a public collection was taken to assist in paying for the building, which amounted to $55.
There is some sickness in the country. The infant daughter of H. L. W.
Mynatt, Esq., died last Monday. It was his only child and was idolized by the family. Misses Laura B. and Laura T. Mynatt have been quite ill.
We trust they will soon recover. We miss their happy faces.

Walnut Grove Academy has an enrollment of ninety students. The teachers are laboring to make it a school of high merit. Prof. Gibbs, of Graytown, has opened with an encouraging outlook. Mr. Douglas Caul-field, of your city, and Mr. A. J. Hickle, are also doing excellent work in our public schools. The County Superintendent has paid us a visit. He made a good impression, and we hope he will come again. GUILAUME.

FRANK LESLIE'S POPULAR MONTHLY FOR OCTOBER.

JOAQUIN MURRAY, New York.

Among the many brilliant attractions of the present number is the commencement of a new novel, entitled, "Two Babes in the Woods," by the famous "Poet of the Sierras." The opening chapters give promise of a story of thrilling interest, characterized by vivid imagination, picturesque power of description and striking originality. No one is better acquainted than the author with our mountain life. "The Madona Parrot" is an exceedingly interesting, elaborate article by Edwin de Leon, with reference to the new history of the ancient land of Egypt. It is profusely illustrated. The admirable articles on "Archery, Past and Present," "Festivals in India," "Lieben and Oporto," "Shooting Stars," etc., all finely illustrated. There are stories, sketches, and poems by Jane G. Austin, Etta W. Pierce, Amelia E.
Barr, and other popular writers. Poems by William Woodworth, Helen W. Pierson, etc., etc. The miscellaneous articles embrace a large variety of subjects, combining with entertainment a vast fund of information. The 128 quarto pages afford delightful reading, and the illustrations are the work of art; they number nearly 100, besides a beautiful chromo frontispiece, "Jerome's Death of Caesar." Single copies are only 25 cents, and the annual subscription $3, postpaid. Address Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 68, 65, 67 Park
